

Projeto Comenius "CyberSpace: The Final Frontier"

<http://www.comenius.zse.edu.pl/>

O projeto sobre o "CyberSpace - a fronteira final" será realizado por escolas secundárias europeias. Embora o principal objetivo do projeto seja aprender sobre a história das TIC, dispositivos, estudar a influência do ciberespaço na vida das pessoas - seus pontos bons e nocivos - explorar o ciberespaço, torná-lo um ambiente amigável para todos os usuários e um veículo para o futuro, também terá como foco a diversidade cultural e histórica dos países participantes.

The project about cyberspace 'Cyberspace – the final frontier' will be realized by European secondary schools. Although the main aim of the project is to learn about the history of ICT devices, study the cyberspace influence over people's lives - its good & bad points, explore cyberspace, make it a friendly environment for all the users and a vehicle to the future, it will also focus on cultural and historical diversity of participating countries.

The project will be divided into two stages:

- 2011/2012 "Cyberspace – Trek":
 - websites about partner schools (one partner about another) and their countries, history, famous explorers
 - deep research of history concerning inventors, inventions and devices connected with cyberspace
 - studying and analyzing the present use of cyberspace (internet, web 2.0 technologies, social media, mobile phones, etc)
 - cyberspace influence over daily activities, language, ways of learning and working, etc
 - traps of virtual reality, e.g. cyber bullying, lack of privacy
- 2012/2013 "Cyberspace - the final frontier":
 - exploring the existing b-link program for disabled people & making students contribute to it
 - elaborating virtual trips around schools
 - how else cyberspace can change people's lives in the future: students' ideas formed into the presentations of their own choice
 - elaborating common project website

The project main idea and the title refers to the motto of TV series Star Trek – the next generation: 'Space... the Final Frontier. These are the voyages of the starship Enterprise. It's continuing mission: to explore strange new worlds, to seek out new life and new civilizations, to boldly go where no one has gone before'. Therefore we hope that students will become real & conscious explorers of past, present & future.
